Local students honored

Forty—one Appomattox FBLA ers and advisers attended the Longwood Region Spring Conference March 8. There were twenty—eight schools represented at the conference with 498 students, advisers and chaperons in attendance.

The day was filled with competitive events, election and installation of regional officers, business meetings, entertainment, lunch in the college dining hall and an awards assembly.

The Appomattox Chapter received the following awards: Parliamentary Law Team, first, Nugene Harvey, Ralph Totty, Melinda Davis, Debbie Roach, Debbie Harris: Free Enterprise Project, first, Margie Coleman:Office Procedures, first, Tammy Womack; Job Description Manual, second, Pam Shrock; Math II, second, Dale Garret; Clerk—Typing, third, Denise Webb.

The Appomattox Chapter received second for the Largest Chapter Membership Award.

Joan Holt, John Clark, Anne Cook, Pat Foster, and Susan Williams, the Appomattox FBLA advisers, were awarded engraved gold charms and commended for their dedication to the Appomattox FBLA Chapter.

The first place winners will represent the Longwood Region in state competition at the Thirtieth Annual State Leadership Conference, Hotel Roanoke, Roanoke, on April 18—20, 1980

Locals judge livestock

The Appomattox Middle School Junior FFA Livestock Judging team participated in the Block and Bridle Invitational Judging Contest held on March 28 at Virginia Tech.

Team members participating were Beth Caldwell, Lisa Coleman, Earnest Humbles, Malcolm Miller and Mark Pierce.

The Friday before the contest, some of the members of the Virginia Tech judging team gave the local competitors tips on how to give oral presentations. There was a total of approximately 360 FFA and 4-H members participating in the contest.

The contest was held Saturday morning, and Saturday evening prizes were awarded to the top five teams and individuals. In statewide competition Beth Caldwell placed eighth in the Angus Heifer judging.

Harvey competes statewide

Daniel P. Harvey II, of Evergreen, was among a select group of high school seniors invited to the Virginia Tech campus recently for the University's third annual scholarship competition, in which $94,000 in academic scholarships will be awarded.

Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Harvey is a top-ranking senior at Appomattox County High School.

'Inspirations' to perform here May 1

The Inspiring Inspirations, a gospel singing group from Bryson City, N.C., will perform at the Appomattox County High School May 1 at 7:30 p.m.

The group is being sponsored by the Appomattox County Youth Association.

Tickets for the event are on sale at the Dairy Queen and at Appomattox Drug Store.

Many people herald them as the ultimate in Gospel Quartets. This was emphasized in 1970 when CBS News did a ten-minute documentary on The Inspirations. In 1972 they were voted by America's Gospel Music fans as the Number One Gospel Group.

The Inspirations Host The Annual Singing In The Smokies each Summer at The Inspiration Park in Bryson City North Carolina. And also Co-Host The Fall Color Festival the second week-end in October of each year. They are the Hosts on an Annual Tour of Hawaii each summer.

The group consists of: Martin Gook, Pianist; Jack Laws, Bass Guitar; Roger Fortner, Lead Guitar; Big Mike Holcomb, Bass; Eddie Deitz, Baritone; Troy Burns, Lead; Archie Watkins, Tenor; and Dale Jones, Steel Guitar.

Impressive Easter service was held at the Galilee Baptist Church Sunday. The pastor delivered a very interesting message on Easter. Beautiful music was rendered by the church choirs. A large crowd of members, visitors and friends were present.

Mrs. Alice LeGrande is improving slowly; we pray for her recovery.

Rev. R.Q. Lawing and the choir of Third Liberty Baptist Church will run a bus to Baltimore, Md. this Sunday. Several friends from here plan to make the trip. Rev. R.Q. Lawing will be the guest speaker at the Friendship Baptist Church in Turners Station, Md.

All local churches are asked to cooperate in the annual Red Cross and cancer drive during this month. Please do whatever you can to help the cause. Please send all donations to Rev. R.Q. Lawing in order that it will show in the complete report from the county.

curriculum at Appomattox Primary School. These children in second grade have been reading about Australia and Hawaii in the Scott, Foresman reading series. Ellen Jamerson, who recently returned from Australia, and Karen Knapp, who recently returned from Hawaii, shared their trips with second graders through slides and items and souvenirs. The students had an opportunity to see a boomerang, a Hawaiian lei, hear about kangaroos and eat a fresh coconut. Here, Karen Knapp is shown with students after her presentation.

Mount Pleasant news

God gives us special privileges and experiences that no other person can share, and bids us tell them what marvelous things he has done for us.

Mrs. Adell Chambers had her daughter and family, the Shaws of Counelal, North Carolina, to spend the weekend. All of her children had dinner on Saturday night, except Harry, who lives in Hawaii.
